BRISTOL PEOPLE AROUSED BY NEWS

Liquor Interests Seek to Make It Emporium for All Tennessee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, Va., May 29.—The temperance people in Bristol were aroused today by the sudden dawning of the news that the "wet" people of the town had secured practically the number of signatures needed to guarantee a local option election. It is expected that the petition will be presented to the court tomorrow, in which event an election will probably be ordered for a date early in July.

CROSS-SEAS LINE.

Second Transatlantic Service inaugurated at Norfolk.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., May 28.—The announcement is made that the Furness, Withy line, operating freight steamers between Norfolk, Newport News and Liverpool, will add a passenger service. The liner Longdale was inspected yesterday by local Federal inspectors and granted the necessary clearance.

NO ODORS

NO MIXING OF FOOD FLAVORS

Features That Will Be Appreciated

Automatic circulation is so constant and perfect and the air so dry, that there is no opportunity for good odors to mix or adhere to the shelves or walls.

It is the easiest to clean—and keep clean and sweet—o' all refrigerators.

It has adjustable shelves—and more shelf room than any other. Ice must be placed in the ice chamber. The ice man cannot drop or throw it in, shaking and marring things.

Anything you happen to have on top of the ice box need not be removed when icing.

The trap used is the one that was found to be the very best after all kinds of experimenting. It cannot clog or cause any trouble.

The Automatic is the only refrigerator with a water cooler so constructed that food odors cannot get at, mix with and taint the water.

Also large assortments of McCray Refrigerators ready for you.

VICTORY IS WON; ITS WORK OVER

Business Men's Association Will Close Its Headquarters To-Morrow.

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS

From Over Country Comes Commendations for Its Fine Campaign.

[Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Ryecombe Street, Petersburg, Va., May 29.]
The Business Men's Association, after conducting the recent victorious campaign against prohibition, will close its headquarters on Monday. The association has received numbers of telegrams from different sections of the State and cities North and South, extending warm congratulations on the decisive victory given to the Anti-Saloon League, and on the high plane on which the campaign was conducted. The vote of the city showed with a small fraction two against to one in favor of prohibition.

The friends of the Anti-Saloon League say that their organization is not depressed by the defeat in Petersburg, and that they may make another contest for the abolishment of the saloons in two years.

Some interest is felt in the naming of a candidate for the House of Delegates, to be elected next November. It may be that the prohibition question will figure in that election.

Ordination to the Ministry.

Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, D. D., bishop conductor of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Virginia, will tomorrow morning in Grace Church ordain to the order of priesthood the Rev. Charles William Snyder, a young citizen of Petersburg, the son of Mrs. Eugenia Snyder. During the past year Mr. Snyder has had charge of important work in Tazewell county and adjacent missions. The several Episcopal churches will be closed tomorrow morning in view of the ordination services, and a very large congregation will attend Grace Church to witness them. The Rev. C. B. Bryan, D. D., and Rev. J. P. Ribble will assist at the ordination, and Rev. R. W. Barnwell will preach the sermon. Mr. Snyder is one of many bright young men that Petersburg has given to the ministry in the last few years.

The new German Lutheran Church at Waverly will be dedicated with interesting ceremonies Sunday afternoon. The services will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Lengel, and his son, Marcus Lengel, and the service will be in English.

End of the School Session.

The baccalaureate sermon before the students and friends of the Southern College was preached tomorrow morning in Washington Street M. E. Church by Rev. D. H. Rolston, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. The commencement exercises will be held on Monday, with a piano recital in the college hall at 11 A. M., and the awarding of diplomas, the final concert and graduating exercises will take place Monday night in the Academy of Music.

Yesterday was Patron's Day at the D. M. Brown Memorial School and the Anderson Public School, and crowds of parents and friends of the children called to inspect the beautiful display of students' work of various kinds placed on exhibition.

It is evident that additional school accommodations will have to be made for the children by the beginning of the next session, especially in the matter of the High School. That building is already uncomfortably crowded, and the number of its students will be largely increased by promotions this session from the other schools.

Personal and Otherwise.
The body of Mrs. M. T. King was brought here this morning from Morristown, N. J., and this evening was laid to rest in Blandford Cemetery beside the grave of her husband, who died some years ago. Mrs. King formerly lived in Petersburg.

Supervisor J. B. McCulloch reports the sale of 102,725 pounds of loose tobacco in this city this week, making total sales for the season to date 6,315,440 pounds.

Memorial services will be held on Monday at the national cemeteries at City Point and in Dinwiddie county, under the supervision of the G. A. R. post of this city.

The commissioners of election met today and canvassed the vote of the local option election of Thursday. The result was found the same as that already published in The Times-Dispatch.

High School Graduates.

The following is a list of the graduates of the John High School, who will receive their diplomas on Tuesday night at the closing exercises to be held in the Academy of Music: Archer Dargan Chappell, Myrtle Aswell Conn, Mary Lucille Cousins, Olive Evelyn Gilliam, Lucille Gilliam, Lucy Beveridge Lenke, Evelyn Allen Perkins, Susie Elizabeth Robinson, Lula Linwood Saunders, Edward Alston Burgess, Henry Willis Callender, Arthur Wilson James and Leon Leslie Savage.

SENIOR CLASS DAY.

Graduates of University of North Carolina Celebrate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., May 29.—The senior class day exercises at the University of North Carolina were a distinct success to-day. At 9:45 o'clock the members of the class met in front of Memorial Hall and marched to the Gerrard Hall, where Dr. Hume met with them for prayers. Next the class assembled in front of the alumni building and marched to Gerrard Hall, where the officers of the class officiated. The address by the class president, F. E. Graham, was one of the most mature and thoughtful speeches ever heard here. The "last will and testament" was read by F. E. Winslow. Next came the class history by J. V. Umstead. The class prophecy, by W. L. Long, was very humorous and interesting. Mr. Tillet presented the class gift to the university.

The morning exercises were closed by the address of Dr. E. A. Greenleaf, president of the Phi Beta Kappa Society and professor at Amherst College. His subject was "The Attitude of the Scholar."

In the afternoon the graduating class assembled at the well and marched to the old east building, where they planted sprigs of ivy, each senior dropping a penny on the ground as he marched by. The pennies are to be moulded into a bronze tablet, which will signify this act of the class.

The class marched to the sacred "Davie Poplar," and after singing many college songs, President Graham, in an appropriate talk, turned over the sacred precinct of the Davie poplar to the class of 1910.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered to-morrow. Monday will be alumni day. Tuesday the diplomas will be awarded to the graduating class, which numbers seventy.
